Our Judicial Treasure

Enrichment of our Judicial Treasure makes us proud. Let us revisit contributions to Judicial Treasure starting with our first Chief Justice Hon'ble Mr. Justice H. J. Kania, and reaching to our junior most civil Judge today.

The idea of regular enrichment may be had by being through 38 Judgments delivered by the Supreme Court in the month of August, 2014 itself.

High Courts, District and Sub Division Courts are regularly making contributions and are enriching our judicial Treasure.

Let us revisit our Judicial Treasure and be proud of it. Let it be our habit to continuously visiting our judicial Treasure.

Let us revisit our judicial Treasure, to imbibe its values

One model to properly imbibe the values and virtues of our judicial Treasure is that one shall chase the growth of one 'judicial Mind' having made contributions to our judicial Treasure.

Exciting project of preserving the Judicial Wisdom and Experience

Justice S. D. Anand, retired Judge of Punjab and Haryana High Court is visualizing an exciting project of preserving the Judicial Wisdom and Experience.

He has a vision of approaching retired judges of High Courts and Supreme Court, starting with the dignitaries settled at Chandigarh and to request them to share their Wisdom and Experience and to permit them to be preserved on video for the present young generation as well as for the posterity.

It is such an exciting vision that many here associated with Paramount Law Consultant Ltd. Company have found it so blissful that they have desired to be associated with this project. Needless to add that it is one project which will go a long way to further enrich our judicial Treasure.

Judicial Mind is ever growing resource and judicial treasure is ever enriching reservoir

During interaction with Justice S. D. Anand, it has made everybody here thrill to know that Justice Anand has enrolled himself for Doctoral thesis with the Law Faculty of MATS University, Raipur, Chattisgarh, India.

What an intensity of urge to know and research on the part of a judicial mind who has already contributed 3437 judgments available in his name on the website of Punjab and Haryana High Court. (<http://lobis.nic.in/phhc/>)

This much contribution by this 'Judicial Mind', in itself, in my humble opinion, deserves to be pursued by a law researcher for a doctoral thesis.

This research in reference to this ‘Judicial Mind’ will further add to the research subject of focus as to the formatting of the judicial mind itself.

Justice S. D. Anand being through its initial evolutionary growth of early phases of judicial responsibilities which in his case has been from the first judicial pedestal of civil judge and same being through all the steps right uptill being District & Sessions Judge, Vigilance before being Elevated as judge of Punjab and Haryana High Court, being well documented in two volumes of his autobiography will help the researcher to reach at the parameters of growth of judicial mind.

Additional advantage in this case would be that the published biography in two volumes titled ‘BARING THE FACTS (the prism is mine) (2013)’, and ‘Living in Vestibule’ (2014).

Justice S. D. Anand is the textbook like illustration of ‘Judicial mind is ever growing resource and judicial treasure is ever enriching reservoir. Justice Anand has enrolled recently himself for Doctoral thesis with Law Faculty of MATS University, Raipur, Chattisgarh, India .

And for the law researchers, Justice S. D. Anand as judicial mind is the potential doctoral thesis subject.

What a blissful scenario (!): “Judicial Mind is ever growing resource and judicial treasure is ever enriching reservoir”
