Each court is sovereign

5. With judicial recognition as that each court at whatever level it is a sovereign court exercising sovereign powers and performing sovereign duties, the nomenclature as 'subordinate courts' be taken as 'foundation courts.

6. Each court being sovereign, as such the foundation courts are visualize having double benefit of external regulations as well as internal fountain.
7. The external regulations help for the foundation course is the Constitutional right of the foundation courts.
8. Courts functionality for justice as per the Constitution and laws as interpreted by the High Courts and Supreme Courts.

Let us pause and evaluate

9. Let us pause and evaluate whether everything is there as per the vision and virtue of the Constitution. Whether the judicial functionaries at foundation courts level are being provided necessary inputs in the form of evaluations, advice & guidelines and opportunities and environment to improve and intellectually grow and to imbibe, the norms, values and virtues of justice they are expected to deliver.

Big experience reservoir

10. Fortunately we are having a very rich and very big reservoir of experience in the form of retired judges.
11. This raises a poser as to whether we have a time to introspect and to evaluate as to how much deficient we are in assimilating this virtuous reservoir of experience and to make the foundational judiciary as our cherished hope and satisfaction.
