Why we are insensitive to procedural illegalities during Trials

Dr. S. K. Kapoor
(Ved Ratan)

Only next to God

1. Courts are respected and obeyed only next to God because there is sanctity attached to every step of the judicial process.
2. It is unthinkable that there would be an insensivities towards illegalities of procedural steps during trials.

Questions are of life and death

3. For the undertrials, there is always a question of life and death.
4. The insensivities towards illegal procedural steps is infact insensitivity towards fundamental right of life.

Courts are open

5. Courts are open for everybody.
6. Everybody from the public as a right to be present in court and to be a witness to the trial procedures and proceedings.
7. Any illegalities, that way would be in the presence of everybody present in the court.
8. To conduct trials with illegal procedural steps, in the presence of everybody would mean that the court and officers of the court including presiding officer, prosecutor, defense counsel, in particular are not only insensitive but are party to illegalities and injustice.

Can there be any excuse to continue illegal proceedings in routine?

6. There cannot be any justification for illegalities in trial proceedings. But, illegalities are continuing.
7. Absolutely insensitive, illogical and unjustifiable excuses are attempted.
8. This decrease of illegalities has reached a stage that only the mandatory rule of having cameras in the courts appears to be the answer.

If there are cameras in the courts

9. If there are cameras in the courts, the nation would be knowing as that Trials continue in the absence of the presiding officer, who many times are just enjoying the leisure in the retiring room.
- 10.If there are cameras in the court, the trial would get exposed as to the way the evidence is recorded.
- 11.If the cameras in the court, the trial would get exposed as to the way the double records are to be prepared.
- 12.If there are cameras in the court, the trials would get exposed the way statements of the accused are being recorded.
- 13.If there are cameras in the court the trial would be get exposed as to the excuses and circumstances in which the adjournments are being allowed and trials are being delayed
- 14.If there are cameras in the court many many others situations would get focused.

Let us be sensitive

- 15.For God sake let us be sensitive.
- 16.For humanity sake, let us be sensitive.
- 17.For sanctity of the oath of office sake, let us be sensitive.
- 18.For justice sake, there cannot be any excuse not be sensitive.
